

Kingdom Called

Whether they are graduating seniors or brand new believers, students need to be continually reminded of God's Kingdom call on their lives. One way we strive to challenge our students is to help them think beyond themselves and their present surroundings. We encourage students to seek God through prayer, Bible study and Christian community to search out what God would have them invest their lives into, and how He wants to use them to impact His Kingdom around the world through their career, education, family, even their summers!

Experiencing a Life Changing Summer

Closer Walk with God - The faith-stretching environment of a Summer Project encourages students to walk more intimately with Jesus.

Start New Friendships - Build meaningful relationships with students from around the country as they share in this faith adventure.

Make a Difference - Not only do they impact a community during the summer but they also return to campus better equipped to impact it for Christ.

on a Summer Project

From Minot State University to...

This summer the Skjervems will be heading to Medora, ND along with 21 students from around the U.S., including 3 students from MSU, for the Medora Summer Project. There are a total of 427 students from our region (MN, SD, ND, IA and WI) who will be spending their summers spread across the world on Summer Projects! 8 of those students are from MSU!

Internship

Mike and Becky plan to join us next year as Campus Crusade for Christ Intern Staff at Minot State. They are both recent MSU grads and as students were valuable leaders within the ministry.

Over 3500 people from Minot and surrounding communities packed the Minot State Dome to see the Newsboys, NeedToBreathe, and 3 other bands and to also hear a message by evangelist Nick Hall. Over 650 people responded in a positive way to the Gospel and many of those have been meeting with people since to learn more about Jesus. Students involved with CRU have been meeting with some of the 60 MSU students who indicated that they wanted to know more about Jesus. Pulse has been more than just a concert, it's ignited students to pray, to trust God in deeper ways, to draw closer to Him, and to follow His leading to share the message of Christ with their fellow students. Executing this event has been amazing for students involved with CRU as they have been stretched immensely in their faith.
